Rules and terms of rotation, categories and positions of civil servants subject to rotation

Footnote. The Rules as amended by Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 19.06.2023 № 265 (shall be enforced thirty calendar days after the date of its first official publication).

1. These Rules and terms of rotation, categories and positions of civil servants subject to rotation (hereinafter referred to as the Rules), have been developed in pursuance of paragraph 2 of Article 41 of the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan “On Civil Service of the Republic of Kazakhstan” and establish the procedure and terms of rotation of civil servants, categories and positions of civil servants subject to rotation.

2. Rotation related to relocation to another locality of civil servants who are persons with disabilities, pregnant, single parents raising a child under the age of fourteen, who have (are guardians of) children with disabilities, including adopted children, parents (guardians) of large families or whose dependents are parents (a parent) with a disability or a parent (parents) who is a pensioner (pensioners) by age established by the legislation on pension provision of the Republic of Kazakhstan, shall be allowed only with the consent of these civil servants, unless otherwise provided for by law defining the legal basis, as well as the procedure for organizing the activities of the diplomatic service of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

These circumstances must be documented.

3. The provisions of these Rules shall not apply to civil servants elected in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Chapter 1. General provisions

4. The rotation of a civil servant shall be carried out by a person (body) who has the right to appoint and dismiss civil servants of a state body (hereinafter referred to as the authorized person).

5. The appointment of a civil servant to the previous position from which he was rotated, and from which he was demoted or dismissed due to refusal of rotation, shall be allowed no earlier than one year from the date of his rotation to another state position, demotion or dismissal, unless otherwise decided by the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

In this case, the decision of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan referred to in part one of this paragraph can be made in respect of a political civil servant and an administrative civil servant of Corps “A” (hereinafter referred to as Corps “A” servants) upon the proposal of the head of the relevant state body.

6. In the event of rotation to another locality, a civil servant shall be provided with official accommodation for the period of his official duties without the right of privatization in accordance with the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan “On Housing Relations”.

In the absence of official accommodation, rotational payments shall be established for political civil servants and Corps “A” servants, administrative civil servants of Corps “B” (hereinafter referred to as Corps “B” servants) of categories C-1, C-O-1 and D-O-1, who are rotated to another locality.

Based on the application of a civil servant who, at the time of the rotation period, has three or less years left before reaching the retirement age established by the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan “On Pension Provision in the Republic of Kazakhstan”, an act of the authorized person on the release of this servant from rotation shall be adopted.

7. Rotation shall be made for the following purposes:

- 1) enhancing the efficiency of state bodies, development of oblasts, cities of republican status, the capital, cities that are administrative centers of oblasts, cities of oblast significance, districts of oblasts and districts in cities;
- 2) prevention of corruption offenses;
- 3) efficient use of professional potential and managerial experience of civil servants;
- 4) professional development and improvement of management competencies of civil servants.

8. Rotation shall be carried out according to one of the following schemes:

- 1) interlevel (“center – region”, “region – center”);
- 2) interregional (“region – region”);
- 3) intersectoral (“center – center”);
- 4) intraregional (within the region).

Chapter 2: Procedures for the rotation of political state servants and corps "A" servants

9. Rotation of political state servants and corps "A" servants shall be carried out by official relocation:

1) of political state servants (except for political state servants appointed to positions by the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan and political state servants for whom the Constitution and laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan determine the terms of their powers) to vacant or temporarily vacant political state positions;

2) of servants of Corps “A” for vacant or temporarily vacant administrative state positions of Corps “A”;

3) between political civil servants (with the exception of political civil servants appointed to positions by the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan, and political civil servants for whom the Constitution and laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan determine the terms of their powers) and servants of Corps “A”.

10. Rotation of political civil servants and servants of Corps “A” shall be carried out in coordination with the Administration of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The personnel management service of the state body shall present to the authorized person (body) or akim of the corresponding oblast, city of republican status, the capital:

1) the list of political civil servants and (or) servants of Corps “A” of the given state body, subject to rotation, at least two months before the deadline for their rotation specified in paragraphs 14 and 16 of these Rules;

2) the list of political civil servants and (or) servants of Corps “A” of other state bodies, whose rotation dates are less than three months away. This list shall be provided to the personnel management service of a state body by the authorized body for civil service affairs upon written request.

11. The head of the state body to which rotation of the civil servant is planned, or the akim of the corresponding oblast, city of republican status, the capital, to which rotation of the civil servant is planned, no later than ten working days before the deadline for rotation of the political civil servant specified in paragraph 14 of these Rules, or at least thirty calendar days before expiry of the tenure of the Corps “A” servant, specified in paragraph 16 of these Rules, shall submit to the Administration of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan a proposal for the rotation of a political civil servant or Corps “A”.

If a political civil servant or a Corps “A” from another state body is rotated to a political state position or a position in Corps “A”, the proposal for the appointment of a civil servant shall indicate information on coordinating the rotation with the head of the state body at the current employment place of the civil servant.

12. Appointment within the rotation shall be made:

1) of political civil servants - within thirty calendar days after the rotation term of the political civil servant set out in paragraph 14 of these Rules;

2) corps “A” servants – before expiry of the tenure of the corps “A” servant.

13. In the absence of a decision on rotation or termination of powers of a political civil servant or Corps “A” servant they shall continue to work in their positions until a corresponding decision is made.

14. Rotation of political civil servants shall be carried out every four years from the date of his appointment to the last position held. At the same time, this period shall not be renewed when political civil servants are reassigned to equivalent positions previously held after the reorganization of a state body, change in structure or renaming of positions.

The rotation period specified in part one of this paragraph shall not include the period of absence of a political civil servant from work for more than two months in a row due to social leave or temporary disability, also in connection with secondment to state bodies, foreign institutions of the Republic of Kazakhstan and other organizations.

By decision of the authorized person (body), the tenure of a political civil servant in his position may be extended by two years. A subsequent extension of the tenure of a given political civil servant in his position shall be permitted by decision of the National Commission on personnel policy under the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan (hereinafter referred to as the National Commission) for two years. At the same time, the maximum permissible tenure of a political civil servant in his position may not exceed eight years.

15. Rotation of Corps “A” servants shall be made subject to their compliance with the special qualification requirements for positions in Corps “A”.

16. The term of office of a Corps “A” servant shall be four years, unless a different term is established by laws and acts of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The period for rotation specified in part one of this paragraph shall not include the period of absence of a Corps “A” servant from work for more than two months in a row due to social leave or temporary disability, as well as in connection with secondment to state bodies, foreign institutions of the Republic of Kazakhstan and other organizations.

By decision of the authorized person (body), the tenure of a Corps “A” servant in his position may be extended by two years. Subsequent extension of the tenure of this servant of Corps “A” shall be allowed by decision of the National Commission for two years. In this case, the maximum permissible tenure of Corps “A” servant in his position may not exceed eight years.

Chapter 3. The procedure of Corps “B” servants rotation

17. Rotation of corps “B” servants shall be made by position transfer:

1) of Corps “B” servants of categories C-1, C-O-1, to vacant administrative state positions of categories C-1, C-O-1 within a state body, including its departments, territorial bodies of this state body and its departments;

2) between Corps “B” servants of categories C-1, C-O-1, within a state body, including its departments, territorial bodies of this state body and its offices;

3) Corps “B” servants of category D-O-1, to vacant administrative state positions of category D-O-1 within the corresponding oblast, city of republican status, capital or between oblasts, cities of republican significance, capital;

4) between Corps “B” servants of category D-O-1, within the corresponding oblast, city of republican status, capital, or between oblasts, cities of republican significance, capital.

18. Rotation of Corps “B” servant specified in paragraph 17 of these Rules shall be made every four years from the date of his appointment to the last position held. In this case, the specified period shall not be renewed when Corps “B” servants are reassigned to positions equivalent to previously held positions corresponding to the previously performed official powers, after the reorganization of a state body, change in structure or renaming of positions.

The period for rotation specified in part one of this paragraph shall not include the period of absence of a Corps “B” servant from work for more than two months in a row due to social leave or temporary disability, also in connection with secondment to state bodies, foreign institutions of the Republic of Kazakhstan and other organizations.

In the event of a written refusal of a Corps “B” servant from rotation, by an act of an authorized person his tenure in this position may be extended for another two years, or the Corps “B” servant may be relieved of his position, or, if he agrees, demoted. A subsequent extension of the term of stay of this Corps “B” servant in his position shall be allowed by decision of the National Commission for two years. In this case, the maximum permissible tenure of a Corps “B” servant in his position may not exceed eight years.

Demotion in a state position shall be made without competitive procedures.

19. The personnel management service or the unified personnel management service, no later than two months before the rotation period, shall generate the list of Corps “B” servants subject to rotation and submit it for consideration to the authorized person.

20. The rotation of Corps “B” servants specified in paragraph 17 of these Rules shall be carried out by an act of an authorized person.

When rotating Corps “B” servants of category D-O-1 outside the oblast, city of republican status, capital, the act of rotation shall be adopted by the akim of the oblast, city of republican status, the capital at the place of rotation of the Corps “B” servant in coordination with the authorized body for public service affairs.

The authorized body for civil service affairs shall not approve if the corps “B” servant does not meet the established qualification requirements, does not comply with the requirements of these Rules, and also if the corps “B” servant subject to rotation worked during the last year under direct supervision of the person who is the head of the state body at the place of the proposed rotation.

21. Rotation shall be permissible between Corps “B” servants who have held public positions for at least the last four years in accordance with the appendix to these Rules (with the exception of civil servants specified in paragraph 17 of these Rules, as well as those elected in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan), including those working in various state bodies, by acts of authorized persons with the mutual consent of these Corps “B” servants and authorized persons. At the same time, the results of performance evaluation of state bodies in relevant areas and performance evaluation of Corps “B” servants shall be taken into account.

22. The appointment of Corps “B” servants within the rotation framework shall be made after the due term for rotation of Corps “B” servants established in paragraph 18 of these Rules.

In this case, the authorized person shall notify the Corps “B” servant in writing about the upcoming rotation at least thirty calendar days in advance. After this period, a corresponding act of the authorized person shall be issued on the appointment of a Corps “B” servant, subject to rotation, to the position.

If the position for which a Corps “B” servant is applying on rotation basis is not vacated by the time of the rotation, then the Corps “B” servant shall continue to work in his position until the specified position is vacated.

Footnote. Paragraph 25 as amended by Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 05.06.2023 № 239 (shall be enforced ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication).

25-1. Disciplinary punishment on administrative civil servants of the "A" corps initiated by the President is imposed without the approval of the National Commission.

Footnote. The Rules are supplemented by paragraph 25-1 in accordance with the Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 24.01.2019 № 828 (effective from the date of its first official publication).

26. In cases when within one disciplinary proceeding it is necessary to consider offenses of several administrative public servants of different categories, the disciplinary responsibility shall be considered by the body or the official having the right to consider an offense of the servant having higher status (category).

27. Disciplinary offences are divided into the following types:

- 1) minor;
- 2) significant;
- 3) gross.

A minor offence is an offence committed by an administrative public servant who has no disciplinary sanction, or after the removal of a previously imposed sanction, for which a sanction in the form of a remark, a reprimand and a severe reprimand is imposed.

A significant offence is an offense committed by an administrative public servant with not removed sanction in form of a remark, reprimand or severe reprimand, for which a sanction in form of warning on incomplete service compliance, or demotion shall be imposed. Thus, in cases of disciplinary offenses for committing of which disciplinary sanction in form of prevention on incomplete office compliance or demotion on the bases according to the legislation on public service is provided, disciplinary sanction in form of prevention on incomplete office compliance or demotion shall be imposed irrespective of existence of not removed disciplinary sanction.

Gross offence is offence for committing of which dismissal, sanctions in form of demotion or warning about incomplete official compliance are provided on the grounds in accordance with current labor legislation, public service legislation, or committed by an administrative public servant with not removed sanction in form of demotion or warning of incomplete official compliance, for which dismissal from holding position shall be imposed.

28. Excluded by Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 22.02.2022 № 814 (shall enter into force from the day of its first official publication).

Chapter 2. Grounds and conditions for imposing disciplinary sanctions

Footnote. The title of Chapter 2 - in the wording of the Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 22.02.2022 № 814 (shall enter into force from the day of its first official publication).

29. The basis for imposing disciplinary sanction is committing of a disciplinary offence by an administrative public servant.

30. For committing disciplinary offence by an authorized person, an administrative public servant may be imposed disciplinary sanctions provided by the Law.

31. Disciplinary sanction must correspond to the severity of the committed disciplinary offense, the degree of guilt of the person who committed it.

32. When determining the type of disciplinary penalty and its imposition, the requirements provided for by paragraphs 5, 6, 7 of Article 44 of the Law are taken into account, and are also taken into account in the aggregate:

- 1) the content and nature of the offence;
- 2) circumstances under which the offense was committed (time, place, method and other circumstances of its committing), the fault of an administrative public servant;
- 3) negative consequences that resulted or could result from the offense;
- 4) previous behavior of the person who committed it;
- 5) experience in the relevant field;
- 6) other circumstances characterizing the personality of an administrative public servant.

Footnote. Paragraph 32 with a change introduced by the Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 22.02.2022 № 814 (shall enter into force from the day of its first official publication).

33. Based on the information on disciplinary misconduct of an administrative civil servant by the personnel management service (personnel service) or persons entrusted with the fulfillment of the duties of the personnel management service (personnel service), a written explanation shall be required from him, which is submitted to him within two working days from the date of his request.

In case of refusal of the administrative civil servant to provide a written explanation by employees of the personnel management service (personnel service) or persons entrusted with the fulfillment of the duties of the personnel management service (personnel service), a corresponding act is drawn up.

The refusal of an administrative civil servant to provide a written explanation cannot be an obstacle to an internal investigation.

Footnote. Paragraph 33 – in the wording of the Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 22.02.2022 № 814 (shall enter into force from the day of its first official publication).

34. If an administrative public servant commits a minor disciplinary offense, if in a written explanation he agrees with the fact that he committed this offense, then the authorized person has the right to impose a penalty in the form of a remark, reprimand or severe reprimand without conducting an internal investigation.

Based on materials relating to administrative civil servants referred to in paragraphs 21, 24 and 25 of these Rules referred to the National Commission, the Ethics Commission or the Ethics Council in accordance with their competence, official investigations may not be appointed if, in written explanations, the employees agree with the fact that they committed a misconduct.

In this case, materials regarding these administrative civil servants are sent to the state body by the chairman of the National Commission, the chairman of the Ethics Commission or the Ethics Council to impose disciplinary sanctions on employees.

Footnote. Paragraph 34 – in the wording of the Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 22.02.2022 № 814 (shall enter into force from the day of its first official publication).

35. If the administrative civil servant in his written explanation does not agree with the fact that he committed a misconduct, then an internal investigation must be carried out in accordance with the procedure determined by these Rules.

Footnote. Paragraph 35 – in the wording of the Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 22.02.2022 № 814 (shall enter into force from the day of its first official publication).

36. Excluded by the Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 22.02.2022 № 814 (shall enter into force from the day of its first official publication).

37. For disciplinary offenses for which disciplinary penalties may be imposed in the form of demotion, warnings of incomplete official compliance and dismissal from a position, an internal investigation and the presence of a recommendation of the Commission shall be mandatory.

Footnote. Paragraph 37 – in the wording of the Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 22.02.2022 № 814 (shall enter into force from the day of its first official publication).

38. If a disciplinary offense is committed by a person who was first admitted to an administrative public position, the personnel management service (personnel service) or a person who is entrusted with the performance of the duties of the personnel management service (personnel service) from a mentor assigned to this person upon committing the misconduct, a written explanation is required, which is attached to the materials of the internal investigation.

Footnote. Paragraph 38 – in the wording of the Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 22.02.2022 № 814 (shall enter into force from the day of its first official publication).

39. When the authorized person considers the recommendations and materials of the National commission, Commission for ethics, the Regional personnel commission or the ethics Council, internal investigations shall not be conducted.

The decision on imposing a sanction shall be made by the authorized person within ten working days in accordance with the recommendation of the National commission, the Commission for ethics, the Regional personnel commission or the ethics Council.

The taken decision shall be reported to the National commission, the Commission for ethics, the Regional personnel commission or the ethics Council within three working days.

40. Disciplinary sanctions in case committing an offence committed jointly by several public servants shall be imposed on each servant individually.

41. Only one disciplinary sanction shall be imposed for a committed disciplinary offence.

42. Application of a disciplinary sanction to an administrative public servant, if other types of responsibility are seen in his/her actions, does not exempt him/her from other types of responsibility provided by the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Chapter 3. Internal investigation procedure

Footnote. Chapter 3 – in the wording of the Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 22.02.2022 № 814 (shall enter into force from the day of its first official publication).

43. An internal investigation is the activity of collecting and verifying materials and information about a disciplinary offense of an administrative civil servant in order to fully, comprehensively and objectively clarify the circumstances of its commission.

44. The basis for the appointment of an official investigation is information about the commission of a disciplinary offense by an administrative civil servant: appeals of individuals and legal entities, materials of law enforcement and other state bodies, publications in the media, memos or representations of heads of structural divisions of state bodies in which the person who committed the disciplinary offense works, and other materials.

The materials may contain information recorded both in writing and in another form, including video materials.

45. Official investigations into disciplinary misconduct of administrative civil servants are appointed by an act of an official who has the right to appoint and dismiss an administrative civil servant (hereinafter referred to as an authorized person) within five working days from the day when the authorized person received information about the offense committed.

Official investigations into disciplinary misconduct of administrative civil servants appointed by an elected body are appointed by the decision of the secretary of this elected body.

The authorized person for the akim of a city of district significance, settlement, village, rural district is the akim of the district (city of regional significance).

46. Information on disciplinary offenses of administrative civil servants specified in paragraphs 21, 24, 25 of these Rules, which became known to the authorized person, shall be forwarded within three working days to the National Commission, Ethics Commission or Ethics Council in accordance with their competence.

47. An internal investigation is carried out by the personnel management service (HR service) or by persons entrusted with the performance of the duties of the personnel management service (HR service), within no more than ten working days from the date of publication of the act on conducting an internal investigation. At the same time, the direct head of the administrative civil servant is involved in the internal investigation, except in cases of a conflict of interests or consideration of their disciplinary responsibility within the framework of one disciplinary proceeding and the cases provided for in paragraph 48 of these Rules.

If necessary, other civil servants may be involved in conducting an internal investigation, as well as conducting an internal investigation may be assigned to employees of other structural divisions with the involvement of an employee of the personnel management service (HR service).

48. Persons who are members of the Regional Personnel Commission, Ethics Commission, Ethics Council and Commission are not involved in conducting an internal investigation.

49. Official investigations into disciplinary misconduct of administrative civil servants specified in paragraph 21 of these Rules are appointed by the decision of the Chairman of the National Commission.

The Chairman of the National Commission may entrust the conduct of an internal investigation to the relevant State body or official in accordance with their competence, with the inclusion of a representative of the working body of the National Commission or the authorized body for civil service affairs in the composition of the persons conducting the internal investigation.

50. The Chairman of the Regional Personnel Commission makes a decision on conducting an internal investigation into the misconduct of administrative civil servants specified in paragraph 21 of these Rules on behalf of the National Commission.

In this case, the Chairman of the Regional Personnel Commission may entrust the conduct of an internal investigation to the relevant state body or official in accordance with their competence, with the inclusion of a representative of the working body of the Regional Personnel Commission in the composition of the persons conducting the internal investigation

51. Official investigations into the misconduct of administrative civil servants specified in paragraph 24 of these Rules are appointed by order of the head of the authorized body for civil service affairs and are conducted by officials of the authorized body for civil service affairs in the time and manner established by these Rules.

If necessary, the authorized body for civil service affairs may entrust the conduct of an internal investigation to the personnel management service (personnel service) of the state body itself with the participation of a representative of the authorized body for civil service affairs.

52. Official investigations into the misconduct of administrative civil servants specified in paragraph 25 of these Rules are appointed by the decision of the Chairman of the Ethics Council and conducted by its working body in the manner prescribed by these Rules, taking into account the specifics provided for by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of public service.

53. Official investigations are suspended for a period of:

- 1) temporary disability of an administrative civil servant;
- 2) the presence of an administrative civil servant on vacation or business trip;
- 3) the release of an administrative civil servant from the performance of his official duties for the duration of his performance of state or public duties;
- 4) the presence of an administrative civil servant in training, retraining, advanced training courses and internship;

5) appeals by an administrative civil servant in court against acts of state bodies on the commission of a disciplinary offense by him, as well as in cases of judicial consideration of an issue that is the basis for the appointment of an official investigation;

6) acts of force majeure, which means a state of emergency imposed in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

7) sending a request to state bodies, officials and other entities for the provision of materials and information necessary for the implementation of official investigations.

The internal investigation is suspended and resumed by the decision of the authorized person.

The decision to suspend and resume the internal investigation in respect of administrative civil servants appointed by an elected body is made by the secretary of this elected body.

The decision to suspend and resume an internal investigation upon the introduction of a state of emergency by an authorized person is made taking into account the basic and temporary restrictive measures provided for the period of its validity.

54. In the course of an internal investigation, the personnel management service (HR service) or persons charged with conducting an internal investigation require written explanations from the administrative civil servant in respect of whom an internal investigation is being conducted, all materials and information concerning the circumstances of the commission of a disciplinary offense and other grounds for investigation are comprehensively and fully collected.

An administrative civil servant, in respect of whom an internal investigation was conducted, by the personnel management service (HR service) or by a person entrusted with the performance of the duties of the personnel management service (HR service), must be familiar with the materials of the internal investigation.

In case of refusal of an administrative civil servant to give a written explanation or to confirm with his signature familiarization with the materials of the internal investigation by employees of the personnel management service (HR service) or persons entrusted with conducting an internal investigation, an appropriate act is drawn up, which is attached to the materials of the internal investigation.

The collected materials are submitted with an appropriate reasoned conclusion for consideration by the Commission.

55. If, as a result of an internal investigation, it is concluded that an administrative civil servant has committed actions that have possible signs of a criminal offense or an administrative offense, the authorized person immediately transmits the received materials to law enforcement or other bodies without submitting them to the Commission for consideration.

In cases of termination by a law enforcement agency of proceedings in a criminal case or in a case of an administrative offense against a civil servant, but if there are signs of disciplinary misconduct in his actions, the case materials are sent to the appropriate state body
